An Account of San Domingo.

The Washington correspondent of the New York Tribune telegraphs January 30:

Judge Kelley's speech on San Domingo has brought him numerous letters, one of which, from a retired Philadelphia merchant, who traded with the Island from twenty-five to thirty years ago, contains some facts with regard to its natural resources which are interesting, while the people are waiting for the return and report of the Commission. The writer says that previous to 1841, Mr. Henry Wilson of Baltimore was agent for the Emperor Christophe, and received very heavy consignments of sugar and molasses. In 1841, the writer established a branch house at Cape Haytien, and was informed, during a visit made shortly after, that, during the French occupation and a part of Christophe's reign, as many as 80 large vessels had often been seen in the harbor, opposite Cape Haytien. Their cargoes were sugar, molasses, and coffee. After 1841 the cultivation of cane was so much neglected that between that year and 1846 the writer sent many cargoes of refined sugar there from the United States. The coffee of San Domingo was once the best in the market, except Mocha, but gradually declined in grade, owning to the decay of agriculture, the want of proper care in picking, and fraud in mixing small stones with it, became of the lowest grade. Under American cultivation, the writer thinks that the article will again be favorably known in our markets. The most valuable logwood comes from the East and North. The oranges and pineapple are far better than those of the Bahamas, and fully equal to those of Cuba. The writer traded several years with Puerto Plata, receiving thence entire cargoes of leaf tobacco, which was particularly esteemed for cigar wrappers, being not only full flavored but of much larger size than that of Cuba. This trade fell off because it was unable to compete with the tobacco raised in Connecticut and Pennsylvania for wrappers, the latter having no duties to pay. Among other articles from the same port were cocoa and strong red pepper. Honey and wax were sent to France, that country furnishing a better market. From the city of San Domingo the writer used to receive three or four cargoes per annum of the most valuable mahogany, in logs and crotches. Good silver and copper abound in the mountains of San Domingo, and for many years English capital has been employed in copper smelting. The decay of trade and the falling off of exports is attributable, according to the writer, to bad government alone, and its sequence, a depreciated currency.

Senator Schurz's Speech.

The Chicago Post has an article upon the subject of Senator Schurz's late speech in the Senate, and says of him that accident has made this gentleman the head centre of the clique of men who now talking of a new party. They hung on the speaker's words as upon the utterances of an oracle. But he must have disappointed them in some things. He declared that the issues in Missouri were independent of the Revenue Reform, thus dragging off the great foundation-stone on which the new party has built its phantom structure. The real division, he says, was on the question of disfranchising the rebel sympathizers. Mr. Schurz claims that this is the only question on which he has ever differed from the straight Republican party. He would have us believe that if a new party is forming in Missouri or elsewhere on the platform of revenue reform, he his not at the head of it or at the tail of it.

The attitude in which this places the young reform party fledglings is somewhat ridiculous. They gather tenderly around Mr. Schurz, admiring every thing he says, beckoning to their friends to listen closely to his words, and trying to gather inspiration from him as though he was their angel of light, while he stretches forth his hand and smites them in the face. When, in his closing sentence, he declares that if any new platform is to be adopted by any party, that party must be the Republican, his words ought to strike consternation to the marplots who think that they are to become the leaders of a new party. In fine, Schurz having fallen heir to the leadership of the reformers, gets out of the fix by quietly but unmistakably snubbing the people who have elected themselves his constituents and mutual admirers.

This effort presents Mr. Schurz before the country in a very different attitude from that expected of him. It had been thought by his enemies that he would stand up boldly and defy the Administration and the party in power. His claquers expected him to make a speech that would be a platform for a new party. He has disappointed both by stepping gracefully and courteously backward, placing himself into comparative obscurity, and granting his company of enthusiastic admirers the use of several benches back of him. The attitude of the whole company is somewhat funny.

The Next Struggle.

The Boston Advertiser thinks that the next bloody contest that occurs in Europe will be between Great Britain and Germany. It thus states the ground of its opinion:

We have never joined in the cry that after the Emperor was dethroned Germany should have withdrawn her armies. As long as there was resistance she was bound to continue the war. We have contended that it was for the other nations of Europe to use all their influence, even to the extent of armed intervention, to prevent unnecessary humiliation of France. They chose a different course. Their remonstrances were of the feeblest, and their policy was timid and irresolute to the last degree. They have lost their opportunity. They will not be called into a conference to arrange a treaty; their advice will not be heeded. When the peace has been concluded they must look to their own houses. War between France and Germany was inevitable after Sadowa; war between Germany and England is inevitable to-day. Holland and Belgium are coveted, and unless Great Britain is pusillanimous beyond what we think, they will not be absorbed by Germany without a bloody contest; and while we deplore the coming conflict, we cannot but think that Great Britain has chiefly herself to blame for the result. She is the great international meddler; if she had meddled to some purpose some four or five months since, she would not now be alarmedly counting up her breech loaders and inquiring as to the state and efficiency of her navy.

REPORT AGAINST WOMAN SUFFRAGE.—A Washington dispatch of the 31st ult. gives this:

Judge Bingham presented to the House today the majority report from the Judiciary Committee relative to the memorial of Victoria Woodhull and others, asking Congress to declare woman suffrage to exist in the United States by reason of the Fourteenth Amendment. The report is very elaborate, and examines all the points made by the memorialists. It states that the Fourteenth Amendment does not confer suffrage upon woman. The word "citizen" as therein used means just what it did in the original Constitution, and no more. The report concludes by stating that if women have, as is claimed, the existing right under the Constitution to vote, the courts of the country is the proper place to insist upon that right, and further legislation on the part of Congress would be useless and unnecessary. The report was signed by the entire committee, with the exception of Messrs. Butler and Longbridge. It is understood that the latter gentlemen are preparing a minority report, which they will present in a few days. The majority report was presented to-day simply for the purpose of having it printed and then re-committed to the committee, so that it will not be brought before the House for definite action for some time.

British Affairs.

LONDON, Feb. 16.—In the House of Commons this evening Sir John Hosg asked whether the Government had authorized the statement by Odo Russell to Count Bismarck, on the 21st of November, to the effect that the state of the eastern question would compel Great Britain to go to war with Russia with or without allies. Sir John wanted to know what preparations had been made to back up the threat.

Gladstone replied that "Russell's arguments were unauthorized. Russell had been vested with a certain kind of discretion, and no certain instructions had been sent him. His course in this matter was censurable.

Viscount Enfield stated that the Government contemplated closing the British Legations in minor European Courts.

Some explanations in regard to the American Commission were given. It was simply to discuss amicably all differences, and any difficulties arising are to be referred to the home Government by cable, and instructions are to be returned in the same way.

BY STATE TELEGRAPH.

ALBANY, Feb. 17.—Some three weeks since a German styling himself Dr. H. J. Fasy, opened an office for the practice of medicine, and after making a great blow among the Germans of this place, suddenly disappeared several days ago going to Corvallis and taking with him a young girl from this city, and after sending the girl home left Corvallis yesterday morning on foot for parts unknown. He leaves several solicitous friends in Albany, from whom he managed to borrow $250, and said friends are anxiously awaiting some tidings of him. A gentleman from Victoria recognized him as the same individual who lately received a coat of tar and feathers from citizens of that city for misdemeanors.

Watering Stocks.

[From the New York Shipping List

A prominent Broad street stock broker has been ventilating, through a series of circulars to the public, the pernicious system of "watering stocks," whereby the managers of the principal railways are enabled to exact rates for transportation commensurate with the nominal amount of diluted stock. The cost of all the railways in the United States is stated by the author of these circulars at $2,000,000,000. The immense importance of these works and the facilities they give for the transportation of passengers, and freight, which could not be moved by any other means so as to afford the slightest prospect of profit, have led to their being taken possession of by grasping and selfish men for the purpose of turning the wealth thus created into their own pockets. The Hudson River and New York Central lines are cited as notable examples of this pernicious system, though the managers of all the leading lines in the country are alleged to be in conspiracy against the public whom, we are told, they plunder with impunity. The statement is positively made that on the New York Central, Hudson River and Lake Shore lines, the nominal increase in stock values reaches $77,644,770, or at the rate of $79,000 per mile. The immediate result is, extreme rates for passengers and freight are extorted, to the great detriment of travel and trade. It is stated that from Chicago to New York it costs forty cents per hundred pounds to bring grain. Allowing sixty per cent. of this, or fourteen cents per bushel of cost, the total cost being twenty-four cents per bushel, there are ten cents for profit on actual capital. But the capital has been doubled, and to pay this rate on what has been added, other ten cents are charged, and every ton of freight pays this tribute.

Such statements as these, in connection with the investigations of Mr. Charles Francis Adams, Jr., in the same field, are certainly of alarming import. There is no danger more threatening to the future of this country than the growth and existence of these over-grown monopolies, and some means should be devised for imposing proper restraint upon them. At present the prospect of reform in this matter, it must be confessed, is not encouraging, owing to the defective civil service, the ease with which legislative bodies are manipulated and the lack of fidelity in judicial administration, all of which evils are mainly attributable to the corrupt influences of these grasping corporations.

A "Boston girl" and a "Springfield girl" are mutually exposing through the papers of that section the vanities and devices of Yankee devotees of fashion of either sex. The Boston girl shows up the vain tricks of the would-be fashionable women of that city—their paddings, paintings, and other deceptive and illusory attempts at appearance—while the Springfield girl is equally severe in exposing the contrivances whereby Yankee fops seek to overreach a reluctant nature, and improve their physiques and complexions by a resort to tailors' expedients and the harsh use of cosmetics. The developments vouchsafed by these epistolary Amazons are sad enough, and add an unhappy chapter to the Malthusian record of the posterity of the Puritans.

LAST NIGHT'S DISPATCHES.

[SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]

The French Assembly.

BORDEAUX, Feb. 15.—The Vice Presidents of the Assembly are Martel, Benoies and Vitel.

Malleville introduced in the Assembly a resolution proposing Thiers for chief executive power of the Republic, and that it be exercised under control of the Assembly, Thiers to nominate ministers. The resolution was signed by Delaure, Malleville, Vitel and St. Hilaire.

In the Assembly a deputy censured the manifestation of yesterday, outside the Chambers, and begged deputies to act so as to preserve liberty of discussion. Violent recriminations ensued between Conservative and Republican deputies.

In a letter Faidherbe declined to accept a membership of the Assembly. Thirty-three of the Paris deputies were present, among them Rochefort, Hugo and Flourette.

Dispatches from London.

LONDON, Feb. 17.—There was no meeting of the Conference yesterday. It adjourned in expectation of the arrival of the French representative.

In a letter Prince Napoleon denies that he offered himself to Bismarck as successor to the Emperor.

It is stated that German troops are concentrating in large numbers on the Loire, and if the occupation of Paris is necessary, Falkenstein will be designated as Governor.

The Prussians exacted 500,000 francs at Bornay, in the Department of Eure, under threat of bombardment. Contributions are levied in Normandy, despite the armistice.

Contributions Reduced.

LONDON, Feb. 17.—Advices from Dieppe state that Emperor William has consented to a two-thirds reduction of the contributions on the Lower Seine.

Petition from French Prisoners.

LEIPSIC, Feb. 17.—A petition to the French National Assembly is circulating among French prisoners in Germany.

Dispatch from Toronto.

TORONTO, Feb. 17.—The Government organ says in relation to Sir John Ross declining to sit on high commission, that the financial negotiation entrusted to him to the Washington Government, constituted the main if not the only reason for his declining to accept the position.

A large loan is already advised by the Secretary of the Treasury for the purpose of consolidating the American debt with a view to the reduction of the interest on it. There would be an impropriety in Ross accepting negotiations of a portion of this loan in England and sitting on commission at the same time.

WASHINGTON CITY.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 17.—The State Department is busily engaged in arranging for convenient reference all information in our archives bearing on the Alabama claims, fisheries, and every other question of difference between the United States and Great Britain, with a view of the approaching meeting of the Joint High Commission.

Alaska not to be Organized

WASHINGTON, Feb. 17.—Senator Nye, from the Committee on Territories, reported adversely to the House bill relating to the organization of the Territory of Alaska.

CALIFORNIA.

San Francisco.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 17.—A party of swindlers who recently attempted to get up a gift jewelry swindle under the name of Rose & Co., No. 122 Leidesdorff street, but were run off by the police, returned recently and got up a circular promising to give the price of the Mercantile Library Lottery tickets in jewelry, with which they flooded the streets, and it is supposed they procured a considerable sum in greenbacks before they suspected that the police were on their track and decamped again. The party are all old operators in the gift enterprise swindling, and hail originally from New York, where they operated at various times under many names.

J. R. Hardenburg to-day took possession of the Surveyor General's office, vice Sherman Day, removed.

The architects of San Francisco propose to meet formally in a body to morrow night to congratulate architect Lavar at his hotel on his success over Eastern architects for the plan of the new City Hall, in open competition with them and the other members of the profession throughout the United States.

Ninety vessels are now en route for San Francisco from Eastern and foreign ports, including twenty-six ships from New York and Boston and twenty-two ships and barks from European ports.

No mail from the City of Mexico or other points in the interior arrived by the Montana last evening. A young man who came from the capital to Acapulco, reports the campaign between the Pronunciamentados and Federal troops as going on actively. The revolutionists have been beaten and scattered into small bands, who rob travelers and prevent mails coming through, though unable to make a stand against the troops.

Deputy Marshal Ackerman started for Trinity county this morning to re arrest Sheriff Jackson, a new indictment having been found by the U. S. grand jury for collecting a foreign miners' tax from Chinamen.

The crops at all points north and south of here, are reported as looking, on an average, better than usual at this season.

OAKLAND, Feb. 17.—Louis Lomax was found lying dead this morning, in the creek a few miles the other side of the Summit House. His horse and wagon were close by. Lomax was a saloon keeper in Brooklyn, a man of dissipated habits, and it is supposed he fell from his wagon into the creek and was drowned.

OAKLAND, Cal., Feb. 17.—A fatal shooting affray occurred five miles from this city this afternoon, at the conclusion of a lawsuit to which B. W. Carpentier, of this city, and H. W. K. Clark, of San Francisco, were plaintiffs. Both these gentlemen were in possession of the Williamson ranch. The settlers thereof were ordered to leave and Fred., son of H. W. K. Clark, was put on the premises as a keeper, to see that no damage was done to the property. Lee Lotus Reed, who claimed to be in the employ of Williamson, and also laid claim to the land, came to Williamson's house, under the Sheriff's permission, to get some personal effects. He had obtained one load and came for the second with a teamster named Huntzel. While they were in the house Clark led the team outside of the enclosureand forbade Reed to return with it, threatening to shoot him if he did. Reed opened the gate and the teamster drove in. Clark commenced firing, one shot at the teamster and three at Reed, two of which took effect. Reed lived about fifteen minutes after being shot. Clark claims the shooting was in self-defence. He surrendered himself to the authorities and is now in custody.

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 17.—A few days since the body of a German named F. Rupp, was found at Kurr's ranch with his head cut open, exposing the brain. Two Indians were arrested on suspicion of committing the deed.

ARIZONA.

SAN DIEGO, Feb. 17.—Arizona stage passengers report the following. At Adamsville, on the 3d inst., within three miles of town, a team owned by C. D. Thompson, was stolen and the wagon burned by the Apache Indians, who killed driver. A white man escaped and brought the news to town. At midnight a party of volunteers started in pursuit of the thieves. When near Round Valley a man named A. Gonzales, a wealthy citizen, being in advance of the party, was mistaken for an Apache and shot. The Apaches escaped with their booty.

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 17.—The Prescott (Arizona) Miner of February 16 says last Saturday, while a wagon train was en route from Prescott to Skull Valley, two of the party riding on ahead of the train discovered fifty Indians in ambush on the roadside, lying in wait for the train. They fired into the Indians and then retreated to the train. Taking some teamsters with them they made an advance on the bushwhackers, who fled. If the Indians had not been discovered before the train reached their place of concealment, there is not the least doubt but the train would have been captured and all hands murdered. A detachment of one hundred mounted men, with twenty days' rations, were sent from Camp Verde on the 1st against the Indians, with orders to continue on the war path as long as possible. Col Wood is preparing to lead a party of mounted men against the Indians in the mountains.

SATURDAY MORNING FEBRUARY 18 1871

The Good there is in the French Disaster's

The agony and humiliation of a great nation says a discriminating writer are to be treated with profound respect and with great sympathy but disinterested spectators ought to be able to regard great national afflictions as truly providential in their character and ought to see the good they were probably intended to effect In the case of France there should be no difficulty in finding both the causes that have led to her downfall and the good that will grow out of her disasters As to the former, her own wisest sons have left nothing to be said The forebodings of M Prevost Paradol in 1867 were almost minutely prophetic of the events of 1870 and 1871, thus far Nor was he alone in seeing that France had within herself all the elements of her own fall from the proud but false position she held among the nations

No people can safely build on shams, and France had given herself up to shams Her political system was a falsehood on the face of it A bastard Cæsarism reposed on the anomalous basis of an equally unreal Democracy Universal suffrage exhausted its force in the abdication of all popular power and the Nineteenth Century Cæsar stooped to conquer a Democracy which only existed for the single purpose of crowning its master

Neither the French people nor their rulers would accept the warnings of the men who like Prevost Paradol, told them that France could no longer act as an arbiter in European politics The national vanity which was swollen into enormous dimensions by the triumphs of the first Napoleon, was an almost universal trait, and could only be eradicated by a severe cautery The French could see that while Russia, Germany and Italy were rapidly and steadily growing in population and power, France must remain stationary and must relatively sink further and further behind the great controlling Powers of the future Indeed, we might say now, of the present So there was no quarter of the world where French influence or intervention was not felt, and hardly anywhere was it felt for good It was French interposition which stayed the natural progress of Russia to the South, which prevented the Italians from doing as they pleased with their own territory, which attempted to create a force in the rear during our own war, and to assert the superior qualities of the Latin race on this continent

French vanity has been the greatest single element of disturbance and irritation among the nations during the past fifty years It has burdened France with a standing army which has not only drained her of her treasures and absorbed her best blood, but which has spread the seeds of physical and moral decay all through the nation It has compelled in the rest of Europe the maintenance of costly armies and the imposition of frightful burdens on the people And the intrigues which have been prompted by French vanity have all been futile because they have all been put forth to stem the natural current of events They have simply delayed the inevitable and exhausted the strength of the nation in an absurd struggle against Divine Providence

But over all the shams and weaknesses and falsenesses that have entered into the French national life there has been spread a glamour which has so effectually concealed the real condition of France from shallow observers that there was need of a terrible and striking series of revelations of the truth, such as have been made during the past seven months fatal to the moral health, and to all well being of the world that there has been revealed the fact that beneath the brilliantly painted and well rouged surface of French France turned to foreign observers were internal and destroying disease of the most fatal and loathesome character Only the upturnings of a great war are now to superficial minds how impenetrated and corrupted society, debauched art, asphyxiated literature and even subordinated music itself to become the slave and inciter of the passions Only a complete overturning could bring out the exposures that have been made of the fatal influences of imperialism on the manhood and womanhood of France It yet needs some master-hand—some Tacitus or Gibbon, or Dean Swift—to group into a series of pictures that will sink into the world's consciousness the various phases of the demoralization into which imperialism has gradually dragging France When these pictures are drawn the world will not ask why the present afflictions of the French were need nor will wise men doubt that they are real blessings in disguise"

Astonishing Obtuseness!

When the bill authorizing the re-organization of the Portland Police was passed by the last Legislature, the Radicals were loud in their denunciation of the Democracy, and declared it to be an outrage, etc We do not propose to argue the matter of right or wrong, but simply to say that the example was taken from their Radical friends, and now we propose to show what the New Jersey Legislature does, which is Radical

NEWARK (N J), Jan 31.—Governor Randolph to day signed the Newark Police bill, which takes the force out of the hands of the Democratic Commissioners and returns it to the Common Council, at present largely Republican

Will not some of our loyal friends send up an indignant howl in behalf of outraged Newark?—Oregon City Enterprise

No because Newark is not 'outraged' It will be seen that the Enterprise has totally misapprehended the meaning of the dispatch Newark is and has always been a Republican city But some time ago a Democratic Legislature deprived it of the right of self government, and appointed Police Commissioners over it The present Legislature being Republican, the power is taken out of the hands of the Democratic Police Commissioners and given back to the city, where it belongs It is really edifying to observe that the Enterprise has been obtuse enough to make out such a case as the above against its own party and against a proceeding it was trying to commend

A paper published at one of the interior towns of California, whose lottery has been squelched by the minions of the law at the instigation of the San Francisco press and of the managers of the Mercantile Library Lottery scheme thus obtains its revenge 'After realizing a net profit of $300,000 out of a lottery scheme, President Swain, of the San Francisco Mercantile Library, publishes the deliberate opinion that all lotteries are demoralizing'

The Democratic members of the Illinois Senate were compelled a few days ago to have their seats remembered in the orisons of a colored man, the Rev Mr. Joiner, who opened the proceedings with prayer with much fervency and unction This does seem like rubbing it into the Democracy

The Herald opposes the division of Oregon by the line of the Cascade mountains and endeavors to enforce its views with an argument for the total abandonment of the National Government and the investiture of the States with the sole powers of Government A paper that would seriously make such a suggestion as this evidently has a capacity for affairs and its views on public questions are remarkably valuable It reminds one of the views of Grasshopper Jim in regard to Vancouver's Island and of the enterprise he contemplated in the direction of China

GEMS FROM THE DEMOCRATIC PRESS.—This from the Oregon City Enterprise

The Littlestown (N H) Republican calls Bontwell a financial blatherskite That's the most polite term for a d—n fool, we ever heard

This from the Albany Democrat

On the 26th ultimo Miss Vinnie Ream's statue of A Lincoln—('late lamented" but now nearly forgotten)—was unveiled at Washington City, amid slobbering tears and much mucus slinging by the truly loyal The statue is said to so perfectly resemble the original as to cause the horses to neigh with affright and the chickens to drop their tail feathers and slink away from the vicinity in dismay at its hideousness This is the last time Lincoln will uncover the thing

OREGON

A woman in Linn county, forty nine years old, gave birth to a daughter last week

It is rumored, says an Albany paper, that the corpus of the late Scio News is to be resurrected and established at Marion railroad station

It is rumored that six of the most inveterate and incurable gunners of Albany are soon to join the Good Templars and thus get "out of the depths"

The Albany Democrat says that the coal lead discovered by Mr Curl, above Scio, is spoken of in the most flattering terms by experienced gentlemen who have visited it.

From the Albany Democrat The family of Hubbard Bilyew, sr, in the Forks of the Santiam, are at present all stricken down with the small pox, but strong hopes of their recovery are entertained There are seven members of the family, and all have been attacked with the terrible disease in its most malignant form No other persons are known to have been exposed to it

From the Oregon City Enterprise "The upper boats still continue to bring down full cargoes of freight, and would bring more were there any place to store it The warehouse at this place has been kept full for the past month, there being at present over 2 000 tons stored in it" All of which proves, according to the logic of the Enterprise, that the country is growing poorer as its trade and productions increase.

From the Statesman: On Friday evening a meeting of citizens will be held at the Senate Chamber at 7½ o'clock to consider the proposition of Mr A Myers for the erection of important works on the middle water power of South Mill Creek. It is said that Mr Myers contemplates the erection of extensive works for the manufacture of agricultural machinery and water wheels. He stands ready to erect such works, which will require an excellent machine shop and foundry as well as a shop for wood work, if the citizens of Salem will donate in property or money $10,000 for the enterprise. The W W. Mfg Co offer to sell him the middle water power, and the two entire blocks from the bridge east on which the same is situated, excepting the lot occupied by the Pacific Brewery, for $25 000, this being a deduction of $5,000 from the price formerly fixed for the property Messrs Grover and Miller headed the subscription with $2,500, and they say as much more can be depended on, which leaves only $5 000 to be subscribed by citizens This sum should be cheerfully and promptly raised

THE TERRITORIES

There is talk of erecting a woolen factory in Boise valley at an early day.

There is about two feet of snow at Idaho City and a good prospect for a profitable mining season.

The Atlanta, the great ledge in Alturas county, Idaho, has been sold to a company of English capitalists.

At Boise City thirty or forty youngsters "played it upon" a "heathen Chinee" the other night in a way to "despise" One of them number burst open the door of an humble heathen and rushed through the premises followed by all the rest shouting "Stop thief!" "Stop thief!" And the string of boys formed a circle and kept running through in that manner until the alarmed Chinaman broke and fled, believing that all the barbarians outside China were rushing pell mell into one door and out of the other

Mrs Crocker told me only a few days ago that she was quite sick and not able to be about Kate—Oh yes, she has been quite sick; but the day after Mrs C was here, we sent for a bottle of PLANTATION BITTERS and has taken it three times a day since It worked like a charm, and she says she is better and stronger than she has been for years She thinks it the best medicine in the world and wants me to take some but it is so awful bitter I do not like it. I have taken it several times but it gives me such an appetite that I tell mother mince pies will not last long Mrs G—Good morning, Kate Give my love to your mother and tell her she is safe so long, as she has PLANTATION BITTERS in the house

REV. D. R. NESBIT,

Of Corvallis,

On Tuesday Even'g, Feb. 21, 1871,

At 7½ o'clock.

Subject—"Shoddy."

The term "Shoddy" has a peculiar significance in America since the war being synonymous with dishonesty hypocrisy affectation pant, humbug Government contracts etc

It is an undisputed fact that there is a tendency in the American people to insolent superiority and brazen faced assumption while there is really a vast amount of hollow sham and vulgar snobbery in every department of society

The Rev Mr Nesbit has therefore chosen a theme as unsurpassed for pleasantry or satire and from his reputation as a speaker, he will undoubtedly handle the subject in a manner both amusing and instructive

SATURDAY MORNING, FEBRUARY 18, 1871.

CITY.

ARRESTED AND IN JAIL.—The young man who attempted the robbery of Mr. Cahn, at Milwaukie, was arrested at Oregon City the following day. He was standing on the railroad platform when discovered by the Constable of Milwaukie precinct, who had gone to Oregon City to search for him. He knew the Constable and upon seeing him attempted to hide away, but Sheriff Myers nipped him. He had a preliminary examination before Squire Myrick, and the testimony being conclusive against him, he was held to answer, and in default of $1,000 bail was committed to jail. When asked his name he replied that the people around here call him Charley Hall, leaving the inference that elsewhere he is known by some other name. The circumstances of the attempted robbery as shown by the testimony, were briefly as follows: He had borrowed a little money of Cahn and had bought some clothes on credit. On the night in question, he came to the store and wanted to borrow a considerable sum. Cahn said he would let him have a little; but Hall insisted on the large sum, and finally drawing his revolver and presenting it swore he would kill Cahn where he stood if he did not shell out what he wanted. Mrs. Cahn was present, and she ran out the front door screaming. Cahn also got out before Hall did; but the latter left before the neighbors who were aroused by Mrs. Cahn, had arrived.

TILLAMOOK GOLD DISCOVERY.—Following are the particulars of the Tillamook gold discovery which we mentioned yesterday, as we have recovered them: Three men, who have taken claims north of Netart's Bay, were out hunting about three weeks ago, when they came upon a section of country which showed every indication of a gold bearing region. One of the party—an experienced miner—concluded to prospect the bank of the creek upon which they had encamped for the night. A frying pan was all he had to wash dirt in. He sunk several holes and in each he found good prospects. From one panful of dirt he obtained over three hundred particles of fine gold. The party followed the creek to its source and found a small lake, which they propose to drain as soon as the weather will permit. The people of Tillamook county are elated with the prospect of rich gold discoveries in that section during the coming summer, and they are laboring hard to complete a wagon road through to this valley by way of Quick's trail. They hope to have the road completed by the middle of April. These are the reportsas we have received them, and we give them for what they are worth.

ASSESSMENTS AND TAXES.—The Statesman says: "The amount paid into the State Treasury by the Treasurer of Multnomah was $34,964 09, and also $747 for poll tax. The last item illustrates what we have made frequent mention of, that there is a wonderful discrepancy between the number of polls and the amount of poll tax, some counties scarce coming up to one-third the amount they should be held liable for." This point is well taken; but as Multnomah county already pays the bulk of the State taxes, and as other counties shirk their share by reason of their ridiculously low assessments, we submit that it does not become them to complain because Multnomah does not pay the small balance necessary to support the State Government, in addition to what she already pays. Let us have an honest assessment in Marion, Linn and other counties; and then we will accept a rebuke from them.

EDUCATIONAL.—The Oregon Educational Union, will be organized at 2 o'clock this afternoon, at the Portland Academy.....The spring term of Portland Academy and Female Seminary opened on Monday last with about one hundred students. The Advocate says "more are to join. In numbers, average age, and grade of scholarship, the ladies and gentlemen of this term rank high. They enter upon their work with fair prospects of a pleasant and prosperous quarter."

LATE ARRIVALS.—The Fannie Troop did not arrive from Kalama yesterday till near two o'clock, in consequence of having made the trip through to Monticello. She brought upwards of fifty passengers. She, however, started back before three o'clock. The Vancouver, also from Monticello and Kalama, did not arrive until an hour or so later, and did not make her usual afternoon down trip. She will go in the morning.

ANOTHER LARGE BUILDING.—Messrs. Savier & Burnside inform us that they will erect this spring a large brick building on the north side of the block occupied by Ankeny's new brick and the Steamship Co's office. The building will be a little over fifty feet wide on Front street, and will reach back along Vine to First, with a front also on First. Work will be commenced as soon as the weather will permit.

NOT STRANGED.—The statement that the Fannie Patton was snagged the other day near Weston and that a hole was knocked in her bottom was incorrect. The captain carelessly run her head into the hard bank, in making a landing, and sprung her butts so as to make them leak. After reaching the basin she was put in the dry dock and repaired.

ANNUAL JUBILEE.—The "heathen Chinee" will celebrate to-day an annual jubilee which is "all same likee Melican man's New Year." A few of the impatient young heathens, "all same likee Melican boy," began their celebration yesterday, in advance, by firing crackers on the sidewalks.

THE NEXT LECTURE.—The fourth lecture to the Young Men's Christian Association course will be delivered next Tuesday evening, by Rev. D. K. Nesbit, of Corvallis, on the subject of "Shoddy."

LOCAL BREVITIES.

A boy only ten years old was arrested and confined in jail Thursday night for petty larceny.

The Mt. Zion Singing Society will have a grand rehearsal next Saturday afternoon.

The name A. H. Rosenbaum, in the Idaho passenger list, yesterday morning, should have been A. Rosenheim.

Baker Post No. 1, G. A. R., will hold its regular semi-monthly meeting this evening, at its rooms, corner First and Madison streets.

Dr. Stephen W. Dodd, appointed by the Governor, Health Officer for Astoria, went down yesterday.

The old spiked State cannon, for many years at Salem, has been sent down here for the new artillery company.

It is expected that the steamship Ajax will sail to-day from San Francisco for Portland.

A billiard match at Green & Knott's saloon is again talked of, the prize being a diamond ring worth $200.

Mayor Goldsmith, we learn, has invested in a $1,300 tract of land at Linn City within the last few days.

The steamer Oneonta yesterday took about one hundred and fifty head of young cattle to the Cascades, for Eastern Oregon.

About ten per cent. only of the city taxes of East Portland remains uncollected.

THE COURTS.

FRIDAY, Feb. 17, 1871.

FOURTH CIRCUIT COURT—UPTON, JUDGE.—J. P. O. Lownsdale, S. Rosenblatt, O. H. Friendly, H. F. Bloch, W. S. Ogden and F. C. Congdon, jurors, were each excused for the term.

H. F. Bloch vs J. F. Shartle; suit to determine the boundary line of A street; judgment on verdict of the jury for costs.

Mary E. Barrett vs Charles Barrett; verdict for plaintiff for $5,921 32 gold coin.

State of Oregon vs D. Murphy; assault with dangerous weapon; grand jury returned "Not a true bill."

COUNTY COURT—HAMILTON, JUDGE.—Charles True vs F. N. Bacon, M. Goodman and Jos. Rothchild; action at law to recover money from the endorsers on a promissory note; the maker having removed from his former place of residence, and the note not being presented when due, on account of this, the plaintiff sets this circumstance up in defense to the answer of the defendants, who claim exemption as endorsers for the reason that they were not notified during the days of grace that they were held in the absence of the principal and by his default. Case argued and submitted to the court.

RELIGIOUS INTELLIGENCE.

The subjoined items are from the Advocate:

By note from Oregon City, we learn that the health of Rev. J. T. Wolfe is again quite poor.

Rev. W. H. Rogers will supply the pulpit of the First Baptist Church of this city, morning and evening, until further notice.

Rev. W. C. Chapman has been transferred by the presiding elder from Milwaukie circuit to Clear creek, in place of Rev. J. James, resigned.

On Wednesday last the corner stone of the First Methodist Episcopal church, at Kalama, W. T., was laid with appropriate ceremonies, conducted by Rev. J. F. DeVore.

Rev. T. E. Corkhill, of the Iowa Conference, has been transferred by Bishop Ames to Oregon and stationed at Salem, to fill the vacancy made by the transfer of Bro. Wilbur to the Indian Agency.

We have welcome intelligence from Bro. F. R. Hill, of Wilbur, that Rev. J. Harer is holding a series of very successful meetings at various points within the bounds of Wilbur circuit. At Wilbur, about thirty have joined the Church and as many more at Oakland.

Rev. J. W. York came down on the boat from Corvallis on Wednesday last, and will spend several days in the city. Father York is probably the only one now living who was a member of the Missouri Conference in 1830, at which time, or soon after, the delegation of Indians arrived at St. Louis, from Oregon, inquiring for the white man's God.

The Taylor street M. E. Sabbath School has an excellent committee at work getting up a Sunday School Concert and Exhibition, to come off in three or four weeks. The object is to raise funds to purchase either a pianoforte or an organ to replace that formerly used by the Sabbath School, which is now in use up stairs in the main church. We think we have reason to expect something good on this occasion.

The East Portland charge is prospering under the pastoral care of Rev. J. W. Miller. Two class meetings are now organized; a new choir, with instrumental music formed, a circulating prayer meeting started, while the Sabbath School and ordinary prayer meetings are well attended. Bro. Miller will preach to-morrow morning the funeral discourse of Bro. G. W. Naff, deceased.

The Taylor street M. E. Sabbath School has commenced the New Year with increased numbers. The attendance of the last month has averaged 233, notwithstanding the stormy weather. A new plan was commenced this year in this school in regard to the monthly concerts. The collections at the concerts in January, March, May, July, September and November, are to be exclusively for missionary purposes, and the collections at the intervening concerts are exclusively for the Sabbath School Treasury.

CATHOLIC ITEMS.—We clip the following paragraphs from the Sentinel:

Masses will only be said to-morrow morning at eight and half-past ten o'clock.

On next Wednesday, the 22d inst., being Ash Wednesday, the holy time of Lent begins in the Catholic Church.

During Lent, Catechism will be taught in the Cathedral Church every Thursday afternoon at four o'clock.

The net amount received by the Sisters of the Holy Names, from the proceeds of the concert held for the benefit of the orphans in their charge is $350.

Last Thursday evening Rev. Father Dielman left here on the steamer Idaho for Astoria, to carry the consolations of our holy religion to our people in that town and vicinity.

High Mass will be said on next Wednesday at nine o'clock A. M., immediately before which the ashes will be blessed and put upon the heads of the faithful. Every Wednesday and Friday evening during Lent, beginning on Ash Wednesday, services will be held in the church at half past seven o'clock. For further instructions see the regulations for Lent, as given by our Most Rev. Archbishop.

AMUSEMENTS.

MATINEE.—At the Oro Fino matinee, at 2 o'clock this afternoon, "Mazeppa" will be played.

NICKERSON'S MINSTRELS.—It is understood that the Oro Fino management has effected an engagement with the Nickerson minstrel troupe, and that they will appear Monday evening.

SOIREE.—Mr. Cardinell's usual weekly soiree will take place this evening at his dancing academy.

MISS LEO HUDSON'S BENEFIT.—Considering that one of the severest storms of the season was raging last night, the attendance upon Miss Leo Hudson's benefit was flattering indeed to the beneficiary. The play—Mazeppa—was well mounted, and considering the lack of room on the stage, was remarkably well performed. The scene where Mazeppa is bound upon the back of the wild Tartar steed was worked up admirably. Miss Leo herself appeared as the hero of the play to better advantage than in most of the pieces produced during her engagement, and won throughout frequent and deserved applause. Mr. Vinson was in one of his "old man" characters, Abder Khan, and of course was perfectly at home. Mr. Bates (on the bills as F. Marvion) was the Castellan, but unaccountably played the part indifferently. Miss Cummings and one or two others nearly spoiled the last scene and tableau with tameness. Cook was occasionally very droll as Drolinski. Miss Eva West exerted herself to overcome the disadvantage of a bad cold, and succeeded in pleasing the audience. "Mazeppa" and "The Wizard Skiff" will be the bill for to-night.

Regulations for Lent.

The following are the regulations for Lent in the Archdiocese of Oregon City, commencing on the 22d of February instant:

1. All the week days of Lent, from Ash Wednesday till Easter Sunday, are fasting days of precept, on which one full meal only is allowed, with the allowance of a moderate collation in the evening and a cup of tea or coffee with a morsel of bread in the morning.

2. The precept of fasting implies also that of abstinence from the use of flesh meat. But, by dispensation, the use of flesh meat is allowed in this Diocese, once a day, at the principal meal, on all the Mondays, Tuesdays and Thursdays of Lent, Holy Thursdays excepted; and at every meal on all Sundays. By the foregoing dispensation, then, there remain only three days of abstinence every week, the Holy Week excepted.

3. Furthermore, the faithful, who by reason of their age or labor, are not obliged to fast, may eat flesh meat at every meal, on all such days wherein a dispensation of abstinence is granted; that is, on Mondays, Tuesdays and Thursdays, except in the Holy Week, where the four last days are of strict abstinence.—Indult Jan. 16, 1834.

4. The regular meal is not, without reasonable cause, to be taken long before noon.

5. The use of fresh meat and fish at the same meal is prohibited.

6. There is no prohibition to use eggs, butter, milk and cheese. Lard may be used in preparing fish and vegetables during Lent. This dispensation extends to the days of fasting and abstinence throughout the year.

7. The Church excuses from the obligation of fasting (but not of abstinence from flesh meat, except in special cases of sickness, or the like) the infirm, those under twenty-one years of age, or only attaining their growth, women in pregnancy or nursing infants, those who are enfeebled by old age, those who are obliged to undertake long and painful voyages, or whose work or duties are of an exhausting or laborious character, and those who by fasting would be rendered incapable of discharging the duties of their calling or would notably impair their health.

8. It is nevertheless eminently in the spirit of the Church that such persons should supply in part, by some good works—that is, by prayers, alms and mortification—for what is remitted in fasting and abstinence.

9. It is also in the spirit of the Church that fervent prayers and alms deed, according to each one's ability, should be the inseparable companion of our fasting and abstinence. These three companions should go hand in hand to help us in our warfare against our three mortal enemies—the world, the flesh and the devil; according to the advice of the angel to Tobias (xii, 8): "Praying is good with fasting and alms, more than to lay up treasures of gold." The practice of these three eminent good works we must oppose to the triple concupiscence that reigns in the world (1 St. John ii, 16), and by means of which Satan maintains his unhappy reign. By fasting we overcome the lusts of the flesh; by alms deeds we subdue the lust of the eyes, by which we are apt to covet the mammon of the world and its empty toys; and by fervent and humble prayers we conquer the pride of life and put to flight the devil, the king of pride. O, let us never forget to call in, in this holy season, these powerful auxiliaries to help us in our warfare. The most praise-worthy practice and holy exercise of reciting the Chaplet (one-half on the Rosary) is most earnestly recommended to be observed every evening, in each family, during the whole Lent.

10. The very soul of fasting and abstinence is a penitential spirit, which implies a deep sense of the guilt of our sins; a horror and detestation of our past disloyalties and treasons, and a hearty sorrow for them; a sincere desire to return to God, and renounce our sinful ways in the future; and particularly, a readiness of mind to make the best satisfaction we are able to the divine justice by penancing ourselves for our sins. Fasting and abstinence performed in this spirit cannot fail to move God to mercy.

11. By an Indult of our Holy Father, Pope Pius IX, granted in 1860, at the request of the late Rt. Rev. Bishop of Buffalo, the seamen and soldiers in the United States service have only six days of abstinence during the year, viz: Ash Wednesday, the three last days of the Holy Week, the Vigil of the Assumption of the B. V. M., and that of Christmas. But as the obligation of fasting, it remains obligatory for them, of for all the rest.

12. On all the Wednesdays and Fridays in Lent, will take place in the different churches, the usual evening exercises, consisting of the recitation of the Chaplet, in honor of the Blessed Virgin, of an instruction, and the Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament.

Given at Portland, Oregon, Feb. 14, 1871.

† F. N. BLANCHET,
Archbishop of Oregon City.

P. S.—The following dispensation of Abstinence has been renewed at Rome for ten years from August 23d, 1865, for the whole Ecclesiastical Province of Oregon City, viz:

1. On all the Saturdays of the year which are not fasting days of obligation.
2. On the Wednesday of Advent.
3. On the three Rogation days and St. Mark.
4. On certain days in Lent.

THE

UNK WEED REMEDY!

OR

RHEUMATIC CURE.

HISTORY:

THIS REMEDY IS COMPOSED OF THE ACTIVE principle of the Unk Weed, Eng—Thapsium, Cordatum, Originlia, Lat—Indigenous to Oregon—Grows most abundantly and perfectly in Washington county.

PROPERTIES, &c.:

It contains an active volatile principle extracted by Ether, and a bitter Tonic principle.

Medical Properties and Uses:

It is the most Sure and Speedy Cure for Rheumatism, Rheumatic Gout and Rheumatic Pains of all kinds that has ever been introduced in the Materia Medica. The Unk Weed Remedy as prepared by us, in consequence of the existing bitter principle, possesses the necessary virtue of being a POWERFUL TONIC!

Promoting the Appetite and Invigorating the whole Digestive Apparatus, thus building and strengthening the system, while at the same time the volatile principle, being absorbed in the blood, acts specifically on the Rheumatic Poison, removing it from the circulation and system.

There are few remedies known to the Medical profession, which will remove the Rheumatic poison from the blood, but whose action is so powerful in depressing the system of the already enfeebled Rheumatic patient, that their use has to be abandoned before specific effects are obtainable. Hence the want of success in treating this prevalent, and in consequence, horrible incurable disease. Unlike these Medicines, already known, the

"Unk Weed Remedy"

Though producing as powerful and as active effects on the blood and system in removing the Rheumatic Poison, also possesses a strong Tonic and recuperating element, which admits of its continued use even in the most delicate and debilitated. Thus we have the combination for the first time of these two most necessary elements in the one remedy, which accounts for its superior and never failing curative effects in

RHEUMATISM, RHEUMATIC GOUT

Political Lying

From the New York Tribune

Can nothing be effectively done to stop the flood of defamatory falsehood which perverts and maddens a large share of our People

Gen Frank P Blair has just been chosen a Senator of the United States His election is the net result of the Missouri bolt organized by Gratz Brown, Carl Schurz, the St Louis Democrat & Co and first proclaimed at the Free Trade banquet in Washington last winter Gen Blair is a Democrat, but he was once a Republican and we are confident is still a man of truth yet he saw fit, in returning thanks to the Missouri Legislature which elected him to the Senate to utter the following

What was the justification of the outrage of carrying to the city of New York armed troops to overawe [illegible] ons last November [illegible] he outrage [illegible] t? Where is the Democratic liar so shameless that he will say that he was precluded from registering or voting or that he registered or voted under duress, because of any act of the President or Military? Repeaters and fraudulent voters were overawed as we intended they should be, but not one legal voter There never was a more peaceable election there never was greater facility or dispatch, whether in registering or voting and the legal Democratic vote was never more thoroughly polled than in November last Yet Hoffman's majority was twenty thousand less than it would have been but for Federal legislation and Executive action in obedience thereto whereby the illegal vote of our city was reduced to a tenth of what it was in 1868

Such are the facts in the case We are better acquainted with them than Gen Blair can be, and we are among the legal voters of the State of New York who are grateful to Congress and the President for protecting our most precious right from invasion and spoliation by Democratic felons whom we are taxed to pay for robbing us of the elective franchise Gen Blair may make himself the accomplice and confederate of our oppressors and despoilers He may echo the atrocious calumnies whereby they seek to cloak their crimes but he cannot make a lie the truth, nor can he render fraudulent voting and subornation to vote illegally other than crimes which good men abhor and the laws should punish

A Good Commission

[From the New York Herald, Jan 13]

If President Grant needed to make any refutation of the unseemly charges made against him, even by such wise statesmen as Sumner, that he is corruptly interested in the San Domingo business he could not have made it more completely than by the appointment of Ben Wade, Bishop Simpson and Professor White to act as the Commissioners Bishop Simpson is the head of the Methodist Church, the largest religious denomination in the land, and although he has declined the appointment his nomination is a strong proof of the President's good will in the matter Professor White is the President of Cornell University, and, while thoroughly conversant with geology and topography, is most probably as slack in politics as Domnie Sampson, of prodigious memory As for Ben Wade, all the country knows him for his honesty In his interview with Senator Sumner recently [illegible] that he would make a square [illegible] and we may be sure he will, no matter [illegible] it hurts Ben is the only possible [illegible] in the lot, and he has been out of politics so long that he has lost the usual characteristics of the trade General Sigel is to be the Secretary of the Commission, and is well known for his honesty, his ability and high standing Such is the Commission and the President has shown his wisdom in making it up of just such men

Senator Sumner will feel thankful, of course, that his doubts of the President are so promptly annihilated, and everybody will be glad to see that the thoughtless charges flung so unrelentingly at the President's head, are thus shown up so fully as canailess slanders Every one will be pleased except those "political jockeys" whom Sumner dreaded so much and those mummy Democrats who have gone back on the grand old Democratic traditions of manifest destiny and the Monroe doctrine, merely to defeat a pet measure of an opposition administration
